

POETRY CONTEST

*Through the Powerful
Voice of Poetry
Help us Speak
Against Tyranny*

IN THE NAME OF POETRY,
WE IMPLORE YOU ...

Since time immemorial, poetry has moved people's hearts and shaped humanity. As poets we surely have a purpose. Today, in China, speech and belief are under attack. The tyrannical fist of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) still attempts to crush free society. We call on you—poets, peacemakers, fellow human beings—help us speak the truth about the cruel injustices enacted upon good men and women seeking peace and freedom.

Visit our website to learn about Falun Gong and speak out, with the powerful voice of poetry, for the most severely persecuted group in modern China.
